MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Annual Meetings. The regular annual meeting of the Members of the Association shall be held on the second Wednesday in April of each year beginning in the year of 1995, at the principal office of the Association. If such date for the annual meeting of the Members is a legal holiday, the meeting will be held at the same hour on the first day following which is not a legal holiday. The failure to hold the regular annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a dissolution of the Association.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Members may be called at any time by the president to the Association, by the Board of Directors, or upon the written request of the Members who are entitled to vote one-tenth (1/10) of all the votes of the membership.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings. Written notice of each special meeting of the Members shall be given by, or at the direction of, the secretary or any person or persons authorized to call a meeting, by mailing a copy of such notice, postage paid, at least fifteen (15) days before such meeting to each Member entitled to vote thereat, addressed to the Member's address last appearing on the books of the Association, or supplied by such Member to the Association for the purpose of notice. Such notice shall specify place, day, and hour of the meeting, and the purpose of the meeting. Notice of annual meetings shall not be required, but may be given in a like manner.

Section 4. Quorum. The presence at the meeting of Members entitled to cast, or of proxies entitled to cast, one-tenth (1/10) of the votes of each class of membership shall constitute a quorum for any action except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration, an applicable Supplemental Declaration, or these By-Laws. If however, such quorum shall not be present, or represented at any meeting, the Members entitled to vote thereat shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum as aforesaid shall be present or be presented. No such subsequent meeting shall be held more than sixty (60) days following the preceding meeting.

Section 5. Proxies. At all meetings of Members, each Member may vote in person or by proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and filed with the secretary. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable and shall automatically cease upon conveyance by the Member of his Lot.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Board of Directors. The affairs of this Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors of not less than five (5) directors who need not be Members of the Association. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment of the By-Laws in accordance with Article XII hereof, and approved by FHA.

Section 2. Term of Office. The initial directors for the Association set forth in the Articles of Incorporation shall hold office until the 1995 annual meeting, and thereafter until their successors are duly elected and qualified. There shall be five(5) positions on the Board of Directors. At the annual meeting of 1995, the Members shall elect one director for a term of one (1) year, two directors for a term of two (2) years, and two directors for a term of three (3) years. Any vacancy, from whatever cause, occurring in the Board of Directors shall be filled by appointment made by the remaining director or directors. The person appointed by the remaining directors to fill such vacancy shall serve for the remaining director or directors. The person appointed by the remainder of the unexpired term of said appointed director's predecessor, and thereafter until his successor is duly elected and qualified. At each annual meeting thereafter the Members shall elect that number of directors equal to the number of directors whose terms expire at such time, such directors to serve for a term of three years each.

Section 3. Nomination. Nomination for election to the Board of Directors shall be made by a Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made by a Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall consist of a Chairman, who shall be a member of the Board of Directors, and two or more persons who may, but not need be, Members of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors prior to each annual meeting of the Members, to serve from the close of such annual meeting until the close of the next annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the Board of Directors as it shall in its discretion determine, but not less than the number of vacancies that are to be filled. Such nominations may be made from among Members or Non-Members.

Section 4. Election. Election to the Board of Directors shall be by secret written ballot. At such election the Members or their proxies may cast, in respect of each vacancy, as many votes as they are entitled to cast under the provisions of the Declaration or any applicable Supplemental Declaration. The person receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected.

Section 5. Removal. No Member of the Board of Directors shall be removed from office except for malfeasance in the conduct of his duties. In the event of death, resignation or removal of a director, his successors shall be selected by the remaining members of the Board of Directors and shall serve the unexpired term of the predecessor.

Section 6. Compensation. No director shall receive compensation for any service rendered to the Association; provided, however, any director may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in the performance of duties.

ARTICLE V

MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held annually without notice, at such place and hour as may be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board. Should said meeting fall upon a holiday, then that meeting shall be held at the same time on the next day which is not a legal holiday.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held when called by the president of the Association or by any director after not less than five (5) days notice to each director, which such notice may be waived at or prior to such meeting.

Section 3. Quorum. A majority of the number of directors, but not less than three

(3) directors, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be regarded at the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Action Without a Meeting. Any action which may be required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken is signed by all of the Members of the Board of Directors. Such consent shall be placed in the minute book of the Association with the minutes of the Board of Directors. Any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the Directors.

ARTICLE VI

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers. The Board of Directors shall have the following rights and powers:

(a) to suspend the voting rights of a Member during the period said Member is in default in excess of thirty (30) days in the payment of any maintenance charge assessment against said Member's Lot; and to suspend such rights for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days for any infraction or its published rules and regulations; and

(b) in the event any maintenance charge assessments have been or are being expended to provide services for the Members (e.g., garbage collection service) to terminate or cause to be terminated such services for any Member during the period said of any maintenance charge assessment against said Member's Lot; and

(c) to exercise for the Association all rights, powers, duties and authority be granted, vested in or delegated to the Association and not reserved to the membership by other provisions of these By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation, or the Declaration or applicable Supplemental Declaration; and

(d) to designate a depository of the funds of the Association and to designate officers or other persons who shall be authorized to withdraw funds and sign checks on such account; and

(e) to designate an officer of the Association or other person who shall be authorized to sign all leases, mortgages, deeds promissory notes and other written instruments on behalf of the Association.

(f) employ a manager, an independent contractor, or such other employees as they deem necessary, and to prescribe their duties and terms of employment or services.

Section 2. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to:

(a) supervise all officers, agents, and employees of the Association, and to see that their duties are properly performed; and

(b) fix the amount of the annual assessment (and any special assessments) against properties subject to the jurisdiction of the Association for each assessment period at least thirty (30) days in advance of such date or period and, at that time, prepare a roster of the properties and assessments applicable thereto; and, further, to take such actions as it deems appropriate to secure payment thereof; and

(c) procure and maintain such liability and hazard insurance as it may deem appropriate on any property or facilities, if any, owned or leased by the Association.

ARTICLE VII

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1. Enumeration of Offices. The officers of the Association shall be a president; a vice-president; a secretary; and a treasurer, and such other officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time by resolution create.

Section 2. Election of Officers. The election of officers shall take place at the first annual meeting of the Board of Directors following each annual meeting of the Members.

Section 3. Term. The officers of the Association shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors and each shall hold office for one (1) year unless said officer shall sooner resign, or shall be removed, or otherwise disqualified to serve.

Section 4. Special Appointments. The Board of Directors may elect such other officers as the affairs of the Association may require each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as the Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine.

Section 5. Resignation and Removal. Any officer may be removed from the office with or without cause by the Board of Directors. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors, the president or secretary. Such resignation shall take effect on the date of receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 6. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office may be filled by appointment by the Board of Directors. The officer appointed to such vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the term of officer replaced.

Section 7. Execution of Association Documents. In the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an officer or other person authorized to sign all leases, mortgages, deeds, promissory notes, checks and other written instruments, any officer of the Association may sign such documents on its behalf except that any three officers must sign each promissory note executed by the Association.

Section 8. Duties. The duties of the officers of the Association are as follows:

President

(a) The president shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and shall see that orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried out.

Vice-President

(b) The vice-president shall act in the place instead of the president in the event of the president's absence, inability or refusal to act and shall exercise and discharge such other duties as may be required by the Board of Directors.

Secretary

(c) The secretary shall record the votes and keep the minutes of all of the meetings and proceedings of the Board of Directors and of the Members; keep the corporate seal of the Association and meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Members; keep appropriate current records showing the Members of the Association together with their addresses, and shall perform such other duties as required by the Board of Directors.

Treasurer

(d) The treasurer shall receive and deposit in appropriate bank accounts all monies of the Association and shall disburse such funds; keep proper books of account; keep accurate books and records of the fiscal affairs of the Association and make the same available for inspection by Members of the Association during normal business hours.

ARTICLE VIII

COMMITTEES

The Association shall appoint a Nominating Committee, as provided in Section 3 of Article IV of these By-Laws. The Board of Directors may appoint other committees as deemed appropriate in carrying out the Association's purposes.

ARTICLE IX

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The books, records and papers of the Association shall at all times during reasonable business hours be subject to inspection by any Member. The Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws of the Association shall be available for inspection by any Member at the principal office of the Association, where copies may be purchased at reasonable cost.

ARTICLE X

ASSESSMENTS

As more fully provided in the Declaration, each Owner is obligated to pay to the Association certain annual and special assessments which are secured by a continuing lien upon the Property against which the assessment is made. Any assessments which are not paid when due shall be delinquent. In the event an Owner's assessment is delinquent in excess of thirty (30) days, any services provided for the Members and funded from the annual or special assessments may be terminated. If the assessment is not paid within thirty (30) days after the due date, the assessment shall bear interest from the date of delinquency at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum, and the Association may bring action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose the lien against the Property, and interest, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees of any such action shall be added to the amount of such assessment. No Owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by non-use of any of the facilities or services provided by the Association or by abandonment of said Owner's Lot.

ARTICLE XI

CORPORATE SEAL

The Association shall have a seal in circular form having within its circumference the name of the Association and within the center the word "Texas".

ARTICLE XII

AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amendment. These By-Laws may be amended, at a regular or special meeting of the Members, by a vote of a majority of a quorum of Members present in person or by proxy. However, the FHA or the VA shall have the right to veto any such amendments while there is Class "B" membership.

Section 2. Conflict. In the case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws, the Articles shall control, and in the case of any conflict between the Declaration or applicable Supplemental Declaration and these By-Laws, the Declaration or applicable Supplemental Declaration shall control.

ARTICLE XIII

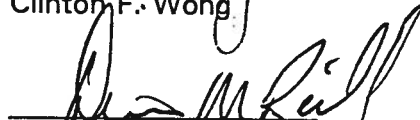

MISCELLANEOUS

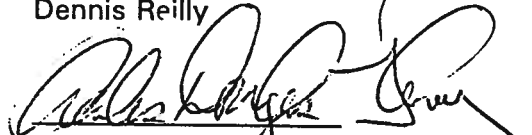

The fiscal year of the Association shall begin on the first day of January and end on the 31st day of December of every year, except that the first fiscal year shall begin on the date of incorporation of the Association.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, being all of the member of the Board of Directors of the Association have hereunto set out hands this 4th day of April, 1994.
